Revival Meets To Continue to January 29th

The Rev. Martin Leih, outstanding revivalist from Monrovia, began a series of revival meetings at the Nazarene Church, 1501 West Carson street, last evening, according to Rev. W. A. Penner, pastor.
 Working with the Rev. Leigh is Joe Calderon, of Santa Monica, a promising young revivalist singer, who will have charge of the music.
 The meetings are slated to continue nightly through Sunday, January 29. The meetings, to which the public is invited, begin at 7:30 p.m.

ILLINOIS STATE PICNIC!
 The president of Illinois State Society Edwin J. Miller, announced to the "Suckers" and their friends an all-day reunion amid "Happy New Year" greetings at Sycamore Grove Park, Saturday, January 28.

Rev. England to Speak of Control

"Living Under Control" will be Rev. Cecil England's sermon theme at the First Christian Church Sunday morning. The public is invited.
 According to Rev. England, life in the modern world makes such demands upon people that it becomes difficult for one to control his own life. Habits, custom, tradition, prejudice and bias become controlling factors in life to such an extent that they control us instead of our being in control of them, Rev. England declared.

Rev. Schauer Tells Sunday Sermon Topic

"Clay in the Potter's Hand" will be the topic of Rev. U. S. Schauer's sermon in the 11 a.m. service of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, Marcelina and Arlington avenues. In the United Evening Service at 7 p.m., pictures of "Stephen the First Martyr" will be shown as a prelude to the message which Rev. Schauer will bring on this religious character. Following the worship service an Adult Forum and Youth Fellowship meeting will be conducted.

GOOD GROOMING STARTS WITH YOUR SHOES

To be well groomed your shoes must always be in "just-out-of-the-box" condition. If they are worn, scuffed, or in need of repair we can restore their good looks.
